

Thank you for your interest in becoming our Student Director! The Student Director will work closely with the production staff throughout the run of the show. Please review the job description, answer the interview questions, and email them to Director Kristy Rosenberger at kristyrosenberger@gmail.com. Once all the interested candidates have submitted their responses, the Student Director will be chosen.

*Student Director applications are due by Wednesday, August 12th

Student Director Job Description

Looking for a highly organized leader who loves theatre, has a keen eye for detail and who wants to play a role in each area of the creative process.

Job duties include:

- Taking blocking notes
- Filling in for actors who are absent
- Teaching blocking to actors who miss rehearsals
- Running blocking rehearsals when the director is otherwise engaged
- Maintaining “the book”
- Assisting the Director with administrative duties
- Keeping track of attendance/absences
- Photographing rehearsals for social media posts
- Assisting with props, painting, set build
- Organizing and leading the tech crew
- Either managing the stage or calling the show during performances
- Ensuring the stage and backstage areas remain safe and clean before, during and after rehearsals and performances
- Other duties as requested

Student Director Application

Name:

Grade:

- Why are you interested in being the student director?
- Are you involved in any other after school or out of school activities?
- Are you available after school and on Saturday mornings for rehearsals?
- What part of the job duties excites you most? What are you least excited about? Why?
- What theatre experience (if any) do you have, both on- and off-stage?
- What is your favorite aspect of theatre?
- How comfortable are you with keeping secrets from your friends and peers? As the Student Director you may hear things in rehearsals and auditions that are not to be shared with fellow students – confidentiality is non-negotiable.
- Share an example of how you have been a leader among your peers. As the Student Director you will be helping throughout rehearsals, leading some run-throughs, and will be in charge of managing the stage crew/cast behind-the-scenes during the performances. It is important that you feel comfortable in a leadership role.
- If not chosen as the student director, will you audition for a role in the show OR join stage crew?
- Is there anything else that you would like to share about yourself?